

List of organisations consulted by Heather Robertson, English Nature, about the proposal to include traditional orchards as a UK priority habitat.

Countryside Council for Wales
Environment and Heritage Service Northern Ireland
Department of Agriculture and Rural Development Northern Ireland
Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs
Scottish Natural Heritage
The Countryside Agency
The Rural Development Service
Welsh Office
The National Trust
The Wildlife Trusts
Butterfly Conservation
Plantlife
Buglife
The Woodland Trust
The Tree Council
Council for the Protection of Rural England
Royal Society for the Protection of Birds
Sustain: the Alliance for Better Food and Farming; sustainable orchards project national working party
Common Ground
People's Trust for Endangered Species; Noble Chafer BAP Group
Warwickshire Local Biodiversity Action Plan co-ordinator
Cambridgeshire Local Biodiversity Action Plan co-ordinator
Cheshire Local Biodiversity Action Plan co-ordinator; Cheshire Landscape Trust
Essex Local Biodiversity Action Plan co-ordinator
Devon County Council
Dartmoor National Park
Cambridgeshire Orchard Group
Wildlife and Countryside Link
Herefordshire Sustain Project
Herefordshire Nature Trust
Worcestershire Wildlife Trust
Kent Wildlife Trust
Somerset Wildlife Trust
Gloucestershire Wildlife Trust
Central Core Network, Scotland
East of England Apples and Orchards Project
Wyre Forest Study Group
In addition, several interested individuals offered comments, eg Meg Game, ecologist and organiser of the Kentish Cobnuts Association, Dr Malcolm Storey, mycologist, Paul Whitehead, entomologist

4/11/05